It's a busy afternoon downtown. People are busy, and the stores are busy, too. Oh, look! There's an accident at the intersection of Smith Street and North Main Street. Mr. Thomas works at the bakery, and he drives the delivery truck. He's talking to the other driver. Over in the park, Elena is watching the children. The children are playing on the swings. They're having a good time. There's a coffee shop on North Main Street. There are two tables in front of the coffee shop. Joseph is sitting at a table. He's reading the newspaper and drinking a cup of coffee. Jane is sitting at the other table. She's reading a book. Mark is the waiter. He's bringing Jane some ice cream. Uh-oh! Mrs. Lee is running to her car. Officer Ortiz is standing next to her car. He's writing her a ticket. Oh, how wonderful! Michael and Luisa are in front of City Hall. They're getting married today.

My Local Park

I live in a big city with my wife and son. I love the city, but it's busy and noisy. Every Saturday morning, my son and I go to our local park. It's beautiful and quiet. The park is behind City Hall. It's only four blocks from our apartment. We can walk there.

There is a pond in the center of the park. On Saturdays, there are many people walking and running around the pond. There is a coffee shop next to the pond. I like to buy a coffee, and I usually buy my son an orange juice. There is a playground behind the coffee shop. My son likes to play on the swings.

On Saturday afternoons, my son plays baseball in the park. His games start at two o'clock. My wife sometimes comes to the park to watch him play. We enjoy talking with the other parents. We don't always speak English at home, so it's a good opportunity for us to practice.

Our local park is a great place for both me and my son. And best of all, it's free!
