Chicago, Illinois, is one of the largest cities in the United States. It's in the Midwest of the country on Lake Michigan. The summers in Chicago are hot and the winters are cold with a lot of snow, so visit Chicago in the spring or in the fall.

Chicago is a busy city. There are many interesting places to visit. If you like parks, you can visit Millennium Park. Here you can see the famous Cloud Gate sculpture, which people also call The Bean because of its shape. Not far from Millennium Park is Buckingham Fountain. It's one of the largest fountains in the world, and it has light shows at night. For children, the Brookfield Zoo is a fun place to visit. The zoo is the home of more than 2,000 animals from all over the world. Another interesting place for families is the Field Museum. Walk through the hall of dinosaurs or see how people lived thousands of years ago.

To see all of Chicago, take an elevator to the top of the Willis Tower. The Willis Tower is one of the tallest buildings in the country. On a clear day, you can see four different states: Illinois, Indiana, Michigan, and Wisconsin.

If you like sports, Chicago is a great city. The city has a lot of professional sports teams. Wrigley Field, a baseball park, is the home of the Chicago Cubs baseball team.

So, when do you want to visit Chicago?

Track 70

Seattle, Washington

Seattle is the largest city in Washington State. The population of Seattle is over 700,000. It is in the northwest of the United States near the Pacific Ocean and Canada. Seattle is a busy seaport. Boats come and go to many other seaports in the world.

Seattle is a beautiful city, but it is a wet city. It gets a lot of rain every year. Between October and May, it is cloudy almost every day. When the weather is clear, you can see the famous volcano, Mount Rainier.

Many people know Seattle because of a tall tower called the Space Needle. You can take an elevator to the top and see the whole city. You can see the University of Washington and the seaport.

The people of Seattle enjoy both college and professional sports. There is a professional baseball team, a professional basketball team, and a professional football team. Seattle is a good place to live and work, and it's a fun place to visit.
