With National Geographic Learning's programs your learners:

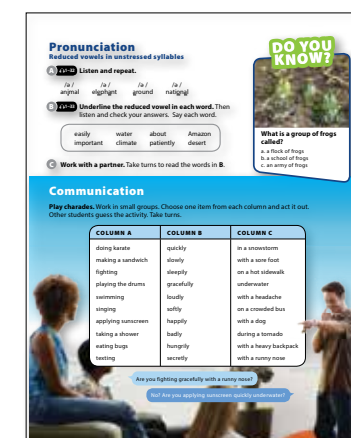

- Encounter real-world stories, amazing photographs and video, and inspiring people to make learning fun and relevant

- Learn about themselves and their place in the world, and develop the skills and knowledge they need to succeed

- Use English to express their ideas, and opinions confidently, to take international exams, and to develop their own voice in English

BRINGING THE WORLD TO THE CLASSROOM AND THE CLASSROOM TO LIFE

The world is an incredible place. At National Geographic Learning, we want to reflect the world through content that is authentic, compelling, fascinating and often amazing.

An incredible photo, story, or idea inspires curiosity. Our learning materials teach English and help young learners and teens to experience the world.

We give learners reasons to talk about their lives, and the world – and to develop a voice of their own in English.

We help you bring the world to your classroom and your classroom to life.

Our programs for young learners and teenagers create a solid foundation for learning about the world.

Unit 6

How Are You?

In this unit, I will ...

- say how people look.
- talk about how people feel.
- talk about what people are doing.

Look and check.

The boy is

- looking.
- talking.

Vocabulary presentation 55

Take care of others.

Sometimes others need your help. Be caring.

Think. Pair. Share.

How can we take care of others?

VERY YOUNG LEARNERS AND YOUNG LEARNERS

For preprimary and primary, we use real-world content, supported by projects, songs, games, and stories to show very young learners and young learners that English is a tool to learn about and communicate with the world.

TEENS

Our secondary programs help teenage learners understand each other better, with projects and classroom activities that encourage confident self-expression, and help learners to develop their own voice in English.

Unit 4

Fashion Footprints

When you buy a piece of clothing, there should be a personal connection.

—Asher

10 Ways to Have a Better Conversation

Go out, talk to people, listen to people, and, most importantly, be prepared to be amazed.

Ask Questions

"Ask questions no matter how intimidating it might seem. The exciting side of science really resides in the questions."

—Kevin Hand

National Geographic Explorer, Planetary Scientist, Astrobiologist

Watch video 5.2.

Write a list of questions about how animals and plants survive in your area. How many did the scientist answer? How many did you?

Choose one of the animals featured in this unit, and find out more about it. What type of environment does it live in? How does it survive there? Could it live in your area? Why or why not?

Authors
Jane Thompson & Stephen Thompson

Hide and Seek is a three-level preprimary series with English language, literacy, numeracy and basic science at its core.

Letters, phonics and numbers are introduced through the Pupil's Book illustrations as pupils have fun finding letters and numbers hidden on each page. This fun and colourful activity-based approach ensures the whole child is learning and developing along with the language.

- Strong development of early literacy and numeracy.
- The syllabus follows the United Kingdom Statutory Framework for Early Years Development Standards (EYFS).
- Phonics are presented and practised in each lesson through the audio material, topic vocabulary and phonic activities.
- Chants and songs in each lesson provide a fun way to absorb the language through a Total Physical Response approach.
- The Art and Craft lessons allow students to explore and work with a range of media and materials, providing opportunities to develop motor skills and to share their ideas, thoughts and feelings.

Teaching Young Learners English

From Theory to Practice

Created by

Joan Kang Shin

Dr. Joan Kang Shin, a trainer of young learner teachers in over 100 countries, and a Welcome to Our World, Explore Our World, and Our World Series Editor, has designed a Professional Development Program that uses short videos of real classrooms and interviews with teachers from around the world to help teachers improve their classroom practice and get the most out of Our World.

The program covers areas and topics for the preprimary and primary classroom such as:

- Using video and technology in the classroom
- Empowering learners through real-world content
- Storytelling
- And much more!

EXPLORE THE PROGRAM AT
ELTNGL.com/OurWorldPD

Teaching Young Learners English focuses on teaching English as a foreign language to children aged 7-12. It presents foundational concepts, best practices, and practical suggestions on how to develop lessons and activities for the energetic and curious minds of young learners in the 21st century classroom.

Teaching Young Learners English also features perspectives and suggestions from practicing teachers around the world, and can be used as a basic text for prospective teachers or as a professional development tool for teachers and administrators wishing to develop the knowledge and skills to teach English to young learners.

- Topics include lesson planning, classroom management, assessment, and on-going professional development.
- Teacher to Teacher sections in each chapter include real teachers from all over the world expressing their views on that topic.
- Each chapter includes a list of useful publications, references, and websites for further study.

PERSPECTIVES

AN OPEN MIND, A CRITICAL EYE, AND A CLEAR VOICE IN ENGLISH

4 Levels | A2 to C1
Beginner to Advanced
American and British English
Up to 3 Teaching Hours/Week

NEW

Perspectives is a four-level series in American and British English that teaches learners to think critically and to develop the language skills they need to find their own voice in English. The carefully-guided language lessons, real-world stories, and TED Talks motivate learners to think creatively and communicate effectively.

Every unit explores one idea from different perspectives, giving learners opportunities for practicing language as they look at the world in new ways.

Students learn the critical thinking skills and strategies they need to evaluate new information and develop their own opinions and ideas.

Students respond to the unit theme and express their own ideas confidently in English.

Exam-style task types and test-taking strategies prepare students for a range of international exams.

1D Half a Million Secrets

“Secrets can take many forms. They can be shocking or silly or soulful. They can connect us to our deepest humanity or with people we’ll never meet again.”

FRANK WARREN

Read about Frank Warren and get ready to watch his TED Talk.

Authentic Listening Skills

Word stress
In English, words with two or more syllables have the main stress on one of the syllables. Learning the pronunciation of words and where the stress is will help you recognize them when you hear them.

1 Read the Authentic Listening Skills box. Listen to the words from the TED Talk and underline the syllables that are stressed.

2 Now listen to two extracts from the talk. Notice the stressed syllables in the first extract. Underline the stressed syllables in the second extract.

3 Watch Part 1 of the talk. Choose the correct options to complete the sentences.

4 Complete the sentences. Then watch Part 2 of the talk and check your answers.

Vocabulary in Context

1 Watch the clips from the talk. Choose the correct meaning of the words and phrases.

2 Complete the sentences with your own ideas. Then discuss with a partner.

3 Read the statements below. Which one correctly identifies the talk’s main idea? Why? How are the ones you didn’t choose wrong?

4 Frank is saying that when we use other people’s secrets, we understand that everyone is human—everyone feels the same feelings. This can help us be kind to ourselves and to other people.

5 Frank thinks that writing postcards is a good way to share information. He says that people are honest when they send postcards.

6 Frank talks about the kindness of strangers. Does he think people are generally kind or generally unkind? How do you know? Do you agree with him?

Challenge

Matty’s website uses the kindness of strangers to help people find lost cameras and photographs. Can you think of other ways that people help strangers? Write down three ideas and share them with a partner.

People sometimes give directions to strangers who visit their city.

Critical Thinking Identifying the main idea

1 Read the Critical Thinking box. Then work in pairs. Say what you think the main idea of the talk is.

Usually a talk contains one main idea, but it isn’t always stated directly. You have to think about how all the parts of the talk work together to create a message.

Unit 1 Who are you? 17

EXAM PREPARATION

Perspectives provides the support learners need to communicate in person, in writing, and on international exams.

- Students practice new language through activities that reflect task types found in international exams.
- Interactive online activities on MyELT prepare learners for common exam situations like timed writing.
- Exam preparation tips in the Lesson Planner help students build strategies for test-taking success.

webinars

At National Geographic Learning, we want students and their teachers to experience the excitement and joy of learning through our materials.

We invite teachers of English to join us in professional development conversations with authors, speakers from the TED stage, National Geographic Explorers, English Language Teaching Consultants and other experts in the English Language Learning field.

Our webinars are virtual presentations developed around an important professional development topic for English Language teachers. Attendees actively participate in webinars through features such as polling, chats, and surveys. All attendees will receive a certificate of attendance for attending a webinar session.

"Since I discovered National Geographic Learning webinars, I couldn't think of a better way of being updated in order to improve my teaching and make my students feel more engaged when learning the language. Thank you for giving us the chance to take part from any part of the world."
- Jimena, an English Language teacher in Argentina

in focus

On the In Focus blog, we explore ideas and topics that relate to our core values of English language teaching: developing global citizens, preparing students to be 21st century learners, motivating learners through engaging content, and teaching effective English.

Our posts feature authors, teacher trainers, National Geographic Explorers, and speakers from the TED stage. We aim to bring you practical tips, interesting topics, and new ideas to help you bring the world to your English language learning classroom.

Follow In Focus and receive updates on new posts.
