

- Igor: I'd like to do a language course in England next summer.
- Saskia: Good idea! I did a course in Brighton last summer.
- Igor: Where did you study?
- Saskia: I studied at the Seafront School of English.
- Igor: Who organized your accommodations?
- Saskia: Someone at the language school. I stayed with an English family. They were really nice.
- Igor: How were the meals?
- Saskia: Not bad actually. Breakfast was delicious.

Presentation

Use past simple questions to ask about finished events in the past:

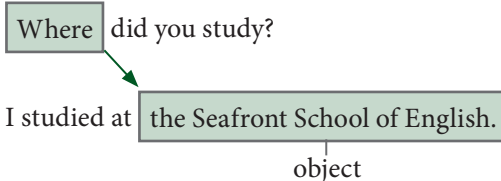

Where did you study?

Who organized your accommodations?

How were the meals?

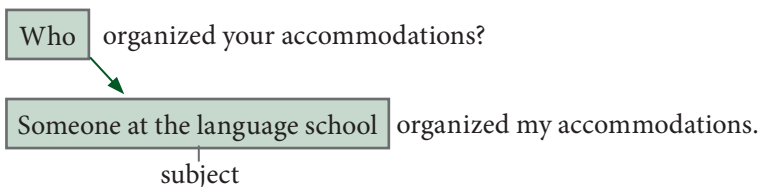

Object questions

You often ask questions in the past simple with did. You want information about the object of a sentence.

Subject questions

You can also ask questions about the subject of the sentence. Do not use did with a subject question.

TIP Remember not to use did with was/were questions.
Say How were the meals? (don't say How did the meals be?)
